

Streaming with No App or Installation Required

Did you know it is possible to log into your account and read an eBook or listen to an audiobook directly from your web browser? No app is needed and you don't have to install anything new. You will be streaming the information directly, so you probably want to be connected to wifi or else have an unlimited data plan for your cell phone. These instructions assume you know your barcode and library password!

- 1) Point your favorite browser to livebrary.overdrive.com
- 2) Select the item you wish to view. If you have already checked out the item, jump to step 4. Otherwise, search or browse for the item.

- 3) From the checkout menu, you can directly click on “Read now in browser” (audiobooks will say “Listen now in browser”). Jump to step 6.

- 4) Alternatively, select “My account” in the upper right corner, then “Loans”
- 5) Choose the item and select “Read now in browser” (audiobooks will say “Listen now in browser”).
- 6) The item opens in the web page and you can begin enjoying your ebook /audiobook!
