LIBRARY RECEIVES NEW YORK STATE GRANT!

LIBRARY GRANT

We are pleased to announce that our library's application for the New York State Education Department's Public Library Grant Construction Program was approved in the amount of $119,843. This is most welcome funding for the construction project currently underway.

THE NEW LIBRARY

The construction is expected to be completed in the fall, and we invite you to come to the library to look at the plans posted near the water fountains on the glass wall inside the rear entrance to the library.

REVISED PROGRAM REGISTRATION POLICY:
PATRONS MAY REGISTER ONLY ONE ADDITIONAL CARD HOLDER WHEN PRESENTING ALL LIBRARY CARDS AT REGISTRATION. PHOTOCOPIES ARE ACCEPTABLE.

Eddie Costello's

ANTIQUES ROADSHOW 101 (AS NOT SEEN ON TV) CMA506
Saturday, August 11th, 2:00-4:00pm.

Do you have something that is old, unusual, or even a little bizarre? Do you wonder if you have something of value or perhaps very valuable? Then this is the program for you! After an entertaining lecture, each participant will be allotted one free appraisal of an antique or collectible. An award will be presented for the most unique piece of the show.

(Please do not bring coins, paper money or stamps for appraisal.)

The Friends of the Library Present

PIZZA, POPCORN AND A MOVIE: POWDER (PG-13) CMY600
Thursday, August 30th, 6:30-8:30pm.

Join us for this great film with popcorn and pizza. Participants will then help in the selection of next month's feature.

- Let's make this a monthly event! -

Following the death of his last remaining adult guardian on their isolated farm, a young albino man nicknamed 'Powder' (Sean Patrick Flanery) is taken into the custody of local authorities. But his genius IQ and ability to harness electricity, leading to spectacular displays, arouses the suspicions of frightened townsfolk. While he's able to change some people's lives for the better, others are too consumed by hatred to accept this strange outsider.

(Non members may attend when accompanied by a CM patron.)

Registration begins on Saturday, August 11th.
