NOVEMBER-DECEMBER 2012

OVER 10,000 BOOKS!

1,291 children read more than 10,000 books during this year's "Dream Big Summer Reading Club". Along the way, kids won prizes, participated in special programming and attended an assortment of educational events and entertaining shows. And to top it off, almost 700 children and their parents "rocked out" to live performances by Squeaky Clean at the club's grand finale.

TOMMY SULLIVAN IN CONCERT

Sunday, November 18th, 2:00-3:30pm. CMA607

Tommy is a founding member of the original Johnny Maestro & the Brooklyn Bridge and an inaugural inductee to the Long Island Music Hall of Fame. In the late sixties, Tommy was honored to have started the first rock band in the U.S. Army while serving in the West Point Band. Hear Tommy sing plus play keyboards, guitar, sax & flute while paying homage to classic hits of the fifties and sixties, including selections by Bobby Darin, Roy Orbison, The Platters, The Beatles, Motown, Moody Blues, even some Sinatra and jazz... and of course his heartfelt tribute to Johnny Maestro. And, there are always great behind-the-scenes stories about the many legendary performers he has worked with over the years.

All are welcome. Register beginning on Saturday, November 3rd.

AND THE WINNERS ARE...

During the summer, hundreds of residents participated in the Adult and Teen Summer Reading Clubs. Each club member read for enjoyment, books of their choosing and submitted brief reviews of their books. The reviews were treated as raffle tickets and the lucky winners were picked at random. The drawing was held on August 16th. And without further ado...

2012 BETWEEN THE COVERS SUMMER READING CLUB
BOOK REVIEWS BY CLUB MEMBERS

Heartwood by Belva Plain.

This is the author’s final book about the continuing epic of the Stern family which began many years ago in the author’s first novel, Evergreen. Sadly to say, Ms. Plain passed away. She is one of my favorite writers and a master at her talent with her characters. The story of the Stern family and all their complex relationships are in the final novel. This courageous family survives to come full circle and appreciate their legacy.

- Laura, East Moriches.

Inheritance [eBook] by Paolini, Christopher Paolini.

The book took a while to start, but once the plot really got going, it was a well written book about the fantasy world of Alagaesia. (Although, some inspiration from Lord of the Rings is undoubtful.) The open end asked for more.

-Maria, Center Moriches.

Before I Wake by Rachel Vincent.

This was a gripping story and wonderful build-up to the final book. Kayley takes charge. Her relationship with Todd blooms while she tries to build a friendship and repair trust with Nash.

-Alicia, Center Moriches.

The Vigilantes by W.E.B. Griffin.

There’s a spike of murders in Philadelphia, PA. when copycats start up. Matt Payne is a Philly cop who solves the mystery with a special task force.

-Denise, Manorville.

Tuesdays with Morrie by Mitch Albom.

A former Brandeis student reconnects with his favorite professor after 16 years. Morrie suffers with ALS. Every Tuesday they work on their final thesis together, discussing many topics, most importantly, loving relationships.

-Kim, Manorville.
