ADULT DEPARTMENT WINNERS & THEIR REVIEWS

Winners were drawn at random by Library patrons Bonnie and Tim Wieser

GO-PRO HERO WINNERS

KRISTY ALONGIS

Maximum Ride: Saving the World and Other Extreme Sports by James Patterson. Max must defeat the Re-evolution which is run by evil scientists who are trying to have a select population.

MARIA T. DIPALMA

Wrecked by Carol Higgins Clark.

This is a Regan Reilly mystery book. Jack and his wife Regan decide to go to the Cape (Cape Cod) for their one year anniversary to have a romantic weekend alone. There is a terrible storm that hits the area, and an unlikely group of people is thrown together to solve the mystery of Adele Hopkins death/disappearance.

HILARY FRIEDMAN

Cooking the Books by Kerry Greenwood.

Lively story, although often repetitive, going through the motions, (page count filler?) descriptions of the baker's day. Nothing earth shattering or world remaking about the soap opera styled mystery, but some fun literary pop culture references. Also, a big cat has a walk-on role.

MICHAEL ZWEOFF

Shattered by John Peel.

Shattered is the story of a teenager who stumbles across magic in an antique shop. Stephanie is confronted with evil mirror images. She has to destroy the antique mirror to save her life. You should read the book to see if she succeeds.

AMAZON GIFT CARD WINNERS

STACEY ECKLES

The Monogram Murders by Sophie Hannah.

I loved reading Agatha Christie's Hercule Poirot novels and this one is a good rendition of the old series.

LAURIE PAPAMICHAIL

Devoted by Rebecca Ascher-Walsh.

This book is about many dogs that are rescued and the way they return the love to their owners which improves the lives of the owners.
