ISLAND HILLS CHORUS CMA612 SUNDAY OCTOBER 16TH, 2:00-3:15PM

From the Region 15 "Audience Choice Award" winning chorus that brought you "New York, New York" and "A Holiday Radio Show", The Island Hills Chorus presents a tribute to the songs and stars that inspired a century of filmgoers because, honestly, who doesn't like the movies? Spend an afternoon with the memories and melodies that shaped the lifetimes of generations both past and future.

The chorus presents a musical history of film—from the old nickelodeon days to the present—as well as a reflection of how music and movies have not only reflected, but often formed America's culture. From World Wars to twerking starlets, the decades brought us memorable songs and singers whose tunes we both love and remember. Reminisce as they revisit the times and tunes that still evoke those wonderful memories of the music of a bygone era. PLEASE NOTE THIS PROGRAM IS OPEN TO SUFFOLK COUNTY RESIDENTS ONLY.

'I SPENT MY LIFE READING BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY' SAYS MICHAEL CAINE by Maurine Donnelly

In a CBS 60 Minutes report, aired on July 3, 2016, Michael Caine talked about his life growing up Cockney in London and of being the object of discrimination because of it. He spent his time and found a freedom in the library. Later, when became more involved in the world of music and entertainment, he became great friends with John Lennon.

Caine is one of the two people who have been nominated for an Academy Award in each of the five decades from 1960 to 2000. In 1992, Queen Elizabeth II bestowed the honor of Commander of the Order of the British Empire on him. Then in 2000, she knighted him and now he can be properly called "Sir Maurice Micklewhite CBE". His home is in Leatherhead, Surrey, England, owns a flat in South East London where he grew up, and owns an apartment in Miami Beach, Florida.

Our library has numerous films on DVD as well as Mr. Caine's two autobiographies.

Research has clearly shown that involving your child in a reading readiness program will enhance their chances of success in their future educational career.

Present your child's library card at the Children's Reference Desk to get your starter bag. In your bag, there's a check sheet to log the books you have read. Choose some books from our pre-packaged theme kits or make your own selections. Then, simply check a box on your sheet for every 10 books read, or record the number of the theme kits you have completed. When your sheet is full, bring it in for your first prize! Collect a new sheet and keep on reading to collect even more prizes at every 100 books! ### GORDON HACKNEY HISTORICAL COLLECTION

Mr. Hackney, a life long supporter of the Center Moriches Library and involved Center Moriches resident (now relocated) has donated his amazing collection of local history, in particular, hard to find old high school yearbooks. These volumes are going to make an outstanding addition to the library's local history collection. Because of their rarity, these items may be viewed in-library only. Please see the Reference Librarian for assistance.

LETTER TO THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Last Thursday, June 23rd, my wife and I visited the Culinary Institute of America, the CIA, and the Franklin Delano Roosevelt home in Hyde Park, NY with "the friends of the library" bus tour. We expected a very interesting trip, but it exceeded our expectations by far. We thought the lunch at the CIA would be a unique sandwich, but instead it was a delicious three course gourmet meal served with wine. The CIA facility is a large estate with beautiful grounds, gift shops and 3,000 hard working students. It is a definite "must see" place to visit.

The Roosevelt home in Hyde Park has been well maintained to reflect its condition in 1945 when FDR died. The estate grounds border the Hudson River and are large with several other buildings of interest along with the gravesite of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt our guide was extremely knowledgeable and described in detail the lives of FDR, his family and a visit by the King and Queen of England. My wife and I truly enjoyed this trip with the library.

In fact, this was our second trip with the Friends of the Library. Last year we visited Chelsea Market and the High Line in New York City on their bus tour. Chelsea market is a large, busy facility with many stores, restaurants and merchants selling a wide variety of things. One could literally spend a weekend at the market and not see everything there. Directly above Chelsea Market is the High Line with its famous viewing window and seating area. The gardens are beautifully done and it's amazing to see the beautiful plantings amidst the tall buildings of the city. Again, this trip was beyond our expectations to a "must see" part of New York City.

Ron Simonetti, Manorville, NY
