ADULT REGISTRATION GUIDE

PROGRAMS ARE FOR ADULTS ONLY, AND A CENTER MORICHES LIBRARY CARD IS REQUIRED, UNLESS ADVERTISED AS "ALL ARE WELCOME".

Saturday registration: Lines start forming before 9:30AM for the most popular programs, so it is advisable to arrive up to an hour early in order to secure a spot for yourself. If the weather is bad, we will not have you standing on line outdoors. A security guard will let people inside the building to wait, in the order that they arrived to stand on line, and numbers will be handed out.

Due to popularity, some programs may fill within the first hour of registration.

Registration online begins at 10 AM.

Patrons may register only one additional cardholder when presenting all library cards at registration. Photocopies of library cards are acceptable, provided the photocopy shows the library card's barcode.

CHILDREN'S REGISTRATION GUIDE

Children are required to have their own Center Moriches library card to register for programs. In-library registration begins at 9:30am. Registration online is available for most programs at 10:00am, a half hour after the library opens. (Visit www.centermoricheslibrary.org and click on the "Program Registration" tab.) In fairness to all patrons, please do not ask to register early or over the telephone.

Library policy states, "Parents or guardians are prohibited from leaving children under the age of ten." The library staff wants your child's library experience to be happy and positive. Please remain in the Library.

SPOTLIGHT ON LONG ISLAND

SELECTED TITLES

Bernstein, Joan.

A Little Bit of This A Little Bit of That: Cooking with Paumanok Preserves, c2007.

Included are recipes for every course, sandwiches, all including the preserves made from Long Island grown fruits. Her commentary includes information about Center Moriches and her family. 641.852 BER

Callow, Philip.

From Noon to Starry Night: A Life of Walt Whitman, c1992.

Born May 31, 1819 in West Hills near Huntington, "spending long, happy hours on the beach, day and night... in old age, he recalled feeling that the beat of the sea breaking on the shore was what made him a poet." As a young man, working in a lawyer's office, he was given a subscription to a circulating library, which he said was "the signal event of my life up to that time." As a newspaper editor he became friends of Poe and William Cullen Bryant, interviewed P.T. Barnum, was inspired by Margaret Fuller. He was a nurse in the Civil War, an editor in New Orleans and then Camden, N.J., a clerk in Washington D.C., all the while working on Leaves of Grass and other poetry. B WHITMAN

Frederick, J. George.

Long Island Seafood Cookbook, c1939, 1971.

Great reading about the history of the Long Island Seafood and Fishing Industry as well as discussions on the chowder controversy, Lobsters, Mussels and Oysters. There are over 400 recipes on how to deal with more than 250 varieties of seafood. 641.692 FRE

Larsen, Joe.

A View from the Ramp, c2010.

This is a fictional first hand view of NASCAR racing. Joe raced at Islip and Riverhead Raceways. In 2012, he was awarded the Sportsmanship Award at Riverhead. The book is dedicated to his Grandfather, who took him to his first stock car race and to his Dad. FIC LARSEN

Philistines at the Hedgerow: Passion and Property in the Hamptons by Steven Gaines c. 1998

From kindly gossip of the current times to historical information about Gardiner's Island and the dealings of Lion Gardiner with the Montauk, Algonquin, and Pequoit Indians and others, to the lives of the artists of the day such as Pollack and Ossorio, the conversational style makes this book easy to love. 974.725 GAI

Hoffman, Alice.

Faithful by Alice Hoffman c. 2016

Shelbye was driving on that night of the accident when her best friend, Helene, was damaged forever. Her guilt caused years of depression, hospitalization, then a move to New York City, and gradually her life improved. Her best friend moved to Valley Stream, she went back to her old home in Huntington and finally, before moving to California for veterinary school with the man she loves, she visited Helene. FIC HOFFMAN

Long Island Noir, c2012.

Eighteen new stories about Long Island, all by authors who teach, live on, were born on, or are otherwise connected to Long Island. There is a Graphic Short Story by Jules Feiffer and one about Jack Kerouac, who did live in Northport. FIC LONG

Fearon, Peter.

Hamptons Babylon, c1998.

In depth chapters about celebrities Jackson Pollack, Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller, John Steinbeck, Truman Capote, Jackie Bouvier Onassis, the Nazi landing, and others, reveal the Hamptons of the time. Things have changed; but not much. Only the names are new. 974.725 FEA

Steinberg, Ted.

Gotham Unbound: The Ecological History of Greater New York, c2014.

All Long Island is irrevocably bound and affected by ecological controls meant to tame such events as Hurricane Sandy. Chapter 9 highlights Robert Moses and his concern for preservation of the wetlands. This history of building, filling in and changing natural wet lands is analyzed, and the author says, "There must be a less rigid developmental approach to life on the edge of the ocean." 508.747 STE

Coleman, Reed Farrel.

What You Break, c2017.

Gritty story of Gus, a retired Suffolk County cop, his friends, Bill, the retired priest and Slav, the mysterious Russian who saved his life once and the gang life on Long Island. Bellport Village and North Bellport, Maureen's Kitchen, Brown's Lane, Vets Highway, McArthur Airport; they all play a part in what Newsday calls a "knowing portrait of the people and places that comprise Long Island's hidden underworld." FIC COLEMAN
