Bracken, A. The Darkest Minds

Ruby survived a deadly disease, only to develop powers that are seen as a threat. She escapes the government rehab center to find the only safe place for kids like her, finding possible love along the way - and a choice that may destroy the life she's tried so hard to find.

Chbosky, S. Perks of Being a Wallflower

This is the story of what it's like to grow up in high school. Through Charlie's letters, we know the world he shares.

Clare, C. City of Bones

Suddenly able to see demons and the Darkhunters who are dedicated to returning them to their own dimension, fifteen-year-old Clary Fray is drawn into this bizarre world when her mother disappears and Clary herself is almost killed by a monster.

Collins, S. The Hunger Games

In a future North America, where the rulers of Panem maintain control through an annual televised survival competition pitting young people from each of the twelve districts against one another, sixteen-year-old Katniss's skills are put to the test when she voluntarily takes her younger sister's place.

Dashner, J. The Maze Runner

Sixteen-year-old Thomas wakes up with no memory in the middle of a maze and realizes he must work with the community in which he finds himself if he is to escape.

Garcia, K. Beautiful Creatures

In a small South Carolina town, where it seems little has changed since the Civil War, sixteen-year-old Ethan is powerfully drawn to Lena, a new classmate with whom he shares a psychic connection and whose family hides a dark secret that may be revealed on her sixteenth birthday.

Green, J. The Fault in Our Stars

Despite the tumor-shrinking medical miracle that has bought her a few years, Hazel has never been anything but terminal, her final chapter inscribed upon diagnosis. But when a gorgeous plot twist named Augustus Waters suddenly appears at Cancer Kid Support Group, Hazel's story is about to be completely rewritten.

Han, J.                    To All the Boys
I've Loved Before

Lara Jean never tells her crushes she likes them - instead, she writes them letters and hides them in a box under her bed. Until she finds that all her letters have been sent, and now all her crushes are about to confront her about it...

Hinton, S.                The Outsiders

The struggle of three brothers to stay together after their parents' death and their quest for identity among the conflicting values of their adolescent society.

Lowry, L.                 The Giver

Jonas lives in an ideal world where he wants for nothing, until he is chosen to receive the memories of the past and must reckon with what his community has lost.

Marion, I.                Warm Bodies

R is a zombie. He has no memories, no identity, and no pulse, but he has dreams. He doesn't enjoy killing people; he enjoys riding escalators and listening to Frank Sinatra. He is a little different from his fellow Dead. Not just another zombie novel, this is funny, scary, and deeply moving.

Mead, R.                 Vampire Academy

Two years after a horrible incident made them run away, vampire princess Lissa and her best friend Rose are found and returned to St. Vladimir's Academy, where one focuses on mastering magic, the other on physical training, while both try to avoid the perils of gossip, cliques, gruesome pranks, and sinister plots.

Riggs, R                 Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children

After a tragedy, sixteen-year-old Jacob discovers an old boarding house and some very unusual children on a remote Welsh island.

Roth, V.                 Divergent

In a future Chicago, sixteen-year-old Beatrice Prior must choose among five predetermined factions to define her identity for the rest of her life, a decision made more difficult when she discovers that she is an anomaly who does not fit into any one group, and that the society she lives in is not perfect after all.

Rowling, J.              Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

Rescued from the outrageous neglect of his aunt and uncle, a young boy with a great destiny proves his worth while attending Hogwarts School for Wizards and Witches.

Thomas, A.              The Hate U Give

Starr lives in two worlds - her fancy suburban school and her less-fancy neighborhood. When her childhood friend is killed by a police officer, her worlds suddenly collide when his name becomes a headline and a hashtag, and Starr is the only witness.

Tolkien, J.              The Hobbit

The adventures of the well-to-do hobbit, Bilbo Baggins, who lived happily in his comfortable home until a wandering wizard granted his wish.

Yancey, R.                The 5th Wave

Separated from her family, Cassie tries to survive the alien invasion of her world in the company of a mysterious young man and reunite with the only family she has left, her younger brother.

Yoon, N.                 Everything, Everything

Madeline has never been outside. She's allergic to everything and her mom keeps their house perfect for her. She's content enough - until a new boy moves in next door. She doesn't tell him she's sick and she's starting to fall in love. It's going to be a disaster.

Zusak, M.                The Book Thief

Trying to make sense of the horrors of World War II death relates the story of Liesel--a young German girl whose book-stealing and story-telling talents help sustain her family and the Jewish man they are hiding, as well as their neighbors.
