Please anticipate that returned items will remain on your account until after this time period has lapsed. No overdue fines will accrue.

SCAM ALERT!

Fake profiles of credit unions have been appearing on Instagram. Scammers then use these accounts to contact users and inform them they have been selected for a cash prize, inviting them to click a link. They will then ask for the user's bank account information.

Fake work-from-home offers have been sent through emails, offering up to $5000 a week for fake positions. In reality, these offers hide money mule scams, asking for bank account information to either defraud the victim or, in some cases, deposit stolen money into the account.

Phishing pages designed to look like IRS tax forms have appeared online, to entice victims to fill it out with their tax information. Once the scammers have this information, they will have access not only to the victims' coronavirus stimulus check but also their tax returns. See below for an example.

Spam campaigns have been sent to victims' email accounts informing them that they have missed a delivery and to click a link to confirm their shipment details. However, clicking on the link will download malware to the victims' computer.

Scam emails from "support@covid-19response.world" have been sent asking for donations to the World Health Organization (WHO) with a button to click, which will then ask for the recipients' bank information. The WHO has its own donation feature on its website and does not send unsolicited emails.

Emails seeming to be from the US Department of Labor have been sent out claiming to inform recipients of changes made to the "Family and Medical Leave of Act" due to COVID-19, asking them to click and open an attached Word document. Clicking this attachment will download malware to the recipients' devices.

Contact tracing scams have been sent by text messages, asking recipients to click a link which will then ask them for personal information such as Social Security Number, bank account information, credit card information, or request money.

*PLEASE NOTE if you are contacted through text by a legitimate contact tracer hired by the state or county Department of Health they WILL NOT include links with their texts. In the event a contact tracer does text you, it will be only to inform you that will be receiving a call to trace the spread of the virus*

Please be aware that while there are several home test kits available for sale, these tests are not considered a verified source and the results cannot be used to determine if you have or have had COVID-19, nor can it be used to begin the process of contact tracing to contain the spread. In addition, there are scammers advertising fake at-home test kits that do not provide any results. The best way to be sure if you have COVID-19 is to get a test through your medical provider.

Trace your family history in the library with Ancestry.com, the world's largest online family history resource. It includes 20 billion records containing facts, dates, and relationships. Records include: vital records, census and voter lists, immigration and travel, military, schools and churches among others. Temporary remote/home access to Ancestry has been extended until the end of July! Visit our online databases at <https://centermorichesslibrary.org/resources/online-resources-databases> and click on ancestry (at home) to get started.

Little Free Library

We hope you have had an opportunity to visit FOL's Little Free Library at Kaler's Pond. It has been well received and well utilized. The books are free for the taking and it's not necessary to provide a replacement book. However, we'd like as many readers as possible to avail themselves of this service and ask that readers only take one or two books at a time. We hope you enjoy this gift!

The Friends of the Library meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month but are postponed until further notice.

Resources for Veterans during COVID-19

Many services and companies are working to provide services to veterans, active military members and their families during this crisis. Below are a few of these services.

Tutor.com is offering on-demand live online tutoring and homework help at no charge to eligible service members and their families.

The Wounded Warrior Project has set up a fund to help meet the financial needs of eligible members who are experiencing financial difficulties during this crisis. *PLEASE NOTE applicants must have registered with WWP before April 8, 2020 and funds will not be awarded once they have run out* Please visit <https://www.wounded-warriorproject.org/covid-relief> for more information about eligibility.

The VA has been granted funds to assist veterans during this crisis. Below are some resources they are providing to veterans and military families.

If you are transitioning from active service to civilian life during this time, the VA has a series of videos and FAQ to assist you. Please visit <https://www.benefits.va.gov/TRANSITION/coronavirus.asp> for more information.

If you are financing your education through the GI Bill, these payments have not been affected by COVID-19. Please visit <https://www.benefits.va.gov/GIBILL/COVID19EducationBenefits.asp> for more information about the transition from in-person learning to online learning, housing credits, and other education related questions.

The VA is suspending all collection on Veteran debts under the jurisdiction of the Treasury Department. They will also stop referring delinquent debt to credit reporting agencies and will not prevent any veteran in delinquent status from seeking VA Home Loans. Collection actions will resume once the national state of emergency is lifted.

The VA is also suspending collection action on all new benefit debts and is offering temporary suspension or extended repayment plans for existing benefit debts (veterans' preference). Please call the Debt Management Center at 1-800-827-0648 to request suspension or extension of your repayment plans.

Beginning March 1, 2020 and ending 60 days after the national state of emergency is lifted, if a claimant or authorized representative requests an extension of a time limit associated with a required action or notes their inability to attend a virtual hearing or tele-C&P examination based on the COVID-19 pandemic, Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) will grant these requests.

Please see <https://benefits.va.gov/BENEFITS/factsheets/financial-literacy/COVID-19-financial-relief-time-extensions.pdf#> for more information.

Please visit <https://www.blogs.va.gov/VAntage/73202/va-expands-virtual-services-support-veterans-due-covid-19-pandemic/> for information about the VA's teleservices for veterans. While some virtual services may have been discontinued due to stay-at-home orders for staff, others have been expanded to better serve veterans and their families.

The VA has a crisis line available for any veteran or family member during this time. Call 800-273-8255 and press 1 (TTY: 800-799-4889), text 838255 or chat confidentially online at <https://www.veteranscrisisline.net/get-help/chat>

Please visit the VA's Frequently Asked Questions for more information on their response to COVID-19, and information about accessing their health services during this time. <https://www.va.gov/coronavirus-vet-eran-frequently-asked-questions/>

Congratulations Class of 2020

Thank you!

A special thank you to Hulse's Garden and Wading River Nursery for their generous donation of perennials that were planted in the side garden by the fence and the flowers in the planters. Thank you to our Friends of the Library that volunteer their time planting and maintaining these planters and gardens!
